

2017 Irish Week in Seattle

including

Seattle's St. Patrick's Day Parade and Seattle Irish Festival

Recognized by USA Today as one of the top ten St. Patrick's Day Celebrations in America

SPONSORSHIP OPPORTUNITIES

European Union Ambassador to the U.S. and former Irish Prime Minister John Bruton, with Parade Chair John Keane, Washington Governor Chris Gregoire, and Irish Government Minister of State John McGuinness TD, before the start of Seattle's St. Patrick's Day Parade.

Overview

Sponsorship of the annual St. Patrick's Day Parade in downtown Seattle (Saturday, March 11), the Seattle Irish Festival at the Seattle Center (Sat, March 11 and Sun, March 12) and other Irish Week Events, can deliver an estimated 13 million impressions to a family oriented audience in the #14 U.S. media market.

Seattle's St. Patrick's Day Parade

Recognized as one of the Top 10 St. Patrick's Day Festivals in America, Seattle's St. Patrick's Day Parade regularly attracts some 10-20,000 spectators along a 12-block Fourth Avenue parade route from Fourth & Jefferson to Westlake Park in downtown Seattle. The parade annually includes over 2,000 marchers including bands, drill teams, community groups and other entertainers from across Washington state. Among the annual favorites are the Seafair Clowns, Seafair Pirates, Keystone Cops, Seattle Firefighters Pipes and Drums, Seattle Police Pipes and Drums, high school bands, drill teams and celebrities. Date: Saturday, March 11 (12:30 noon to 2:30 p.m.).

Seattle Irish Festival at the Seattle Center

Seattle's Irish Festival, a part of Festal at the Seattle Center (in the Armory, formerly known as Center House), attracts some 15,000 participants each year. The two-day festival includes non-stop Irish music, singing, dancing, workshops, lectures, art and cultural displays, children's contests and other activities, including artisans selling Irish and Celtic products. The most popular activities include Champion Irish Stepdancers, the "Smilingest Irish Eyes" Contest, the "Most Irish-Looking Face" Contest, and the Irish Reels Film Festival of contemporary Irish short films. Date: Saturday, March 11, Sunday, March 12.

Other Irish Week Events

Irish Reels Film Festival (Sat, March 11 and Sun, March 12), Irish Genealogy Workshop (Sat. March 25), Irish Soda Bread Cooking Class (Sat. Feb. 18), Irish Soda Bread Contest (Sat. March 4), Mayor's Irish Week Proclamation Luncheon (Fri. March 10), Pirates Landing of St. Patrick (Fri. March 10), Laying 'O The Green (Fri. March 10), Matt Talbot Dinner (Sun. March 12), Friends of St. Patrick Dinner (Sun. March 12), Gaelic Games Day (Sun. March 26).

Value Proposition

Value-based sponsorship opportunities for a mid-spring, family civic festival in Seattle's community. Opportunity to align your brand with one of Seattle's most enduring civic family oriented festivals. 2017 could be the first year of a structured corporate sponsorship program for this event, thus creating additional media opportunity and eliminating brand confusion associated with other sponsored events.

Demographics

Families / All Ages

The Hon. Desmond Guinness & Mayor Declan McDonnell of Galway, Ireland, raise the Irish Flag before the start of the St. Patrick's Day Parade.

Sponsorship Categories

Title Sponsorship: Exclusive naming rights to St. Patrick's Day Parade and the Seattle Irish Festival at Seattle Center, pole banner program in Downtown Seattle, Seattle Center signage, preferred presence within parade for personalities or other assets, advertising / visibility in the St. Patrick's Day Parade media, participation in public relations program, Irish Festival booth, Event Sponsorship deliverables.

Event Sponsorship: Presenting sponsorship of individual Irish Week 2017 events other than St. Patrick's Day Parade and Seattle Center Irish Week Festival; Laying 'O The Green on Seattle's 4th Ave., Irish Soda Bread Contest, Mayor's Irish Week

Proclamation Luncheon, Irish Genealogy Workshop, Society of The Friends of St. Patrick Dinner, Matt Talbot Dinner and Irish Reels Film Festival. Event sponsor also receives Parade and Festival signage, exhibitor space and product seeding opportunities, presence within parade for personalities or other assets, advertising / visibility in Irish Heritage Club / St. Patrick's Day Parade select media, and participation in public relations program.

Media Partner: Media partners provide in-kind assistance to assist Seattle Irish Week in reaching its target audience: Seattle DMA individuals and families. In-kind assistance should include, but is not limited to, in-kind production and airing of PSAs, on-air promotional activities, and website promotional content. Media partners receive preferred presence at the parade and festival for personalities or other assets, advertising / visibility in Irish Heritage Club / St. Patrick's Day Parade proprietary media (not including pole banners), and visibility at all Irish Week Events.

Media/Audience

Parade / Festival Attendance	35,000
Pole Banner Visibility – Pedestrian and Automobile (30 days)*	9,000,000
Seattle Center Signage (14 days)*	1,000,000
Irish Week Website (IrishClub.org) (365 days)	1,500,000
Irish Week Program (circulation)	1,000
Irish Week Targeted e-Mail Blasts (3 distributions of 6,000)	18,000
PR Program (print and online)	1,200,000
PR Program (television and radio)	500,000

Total Estimated Impressions:

13 million

Pole banners include production, hanging, permitting for 50 banners strategically placed along parade route and Seattle downtown business and retail core. Impressions based on Seattle Downtown Association pedestrian and automobile traffic counts for selected zones within the City of Seattle.*

Print and electronic media impressions based on current circulations and site traffic reports from Seattle Times.*

Television and radio audience based on current Nielsen Audience ratings for primary network affiliates reaching audiences in the Seattle DMA.

Contact:

John Keane

For the Irish Heritage Club of Seattle

425-582-2688 / jkeane@irishclub.org

www.irishweek.org