2019 Parade Application

All completed applications must be received no later than March 1

Seattle's St Patrick's Day Parade is organized by a committee of the Irish Heritage Club, a 501(c)3 non-profit volunteer organization. The Parade is a tribute to St. Patrick and a celebration of Irish tradition and heritage organized for the enjoyment and education of one and all. It is a family-friendly event; the use of profanity or derogatory terms or slurs (spoken, in music or printed on attire, signs or banners) is strictly prohibited. The Parade Committee reserves the right to deny and/or remove any entry that in its opinion breaches community standards for good taste. Participants in vehicles are prohibited from throwing or handing out any type of object (e.g., candy), in order to avoid possible injury to parade onlookers and/or children. All vehicle operators and animal owners must carry individual liability insurance coverage.
